

*Success
is in the planning...*

Planning an event, whether formal or informal, can be a truly stressful affair. When preparing guest lists, seating arrangements, support equipment, accommodation, catering and much more, you need the peace of mind of not only an attractive venue but also knowing knowledgeable staff are on hand to ensure your event goes without a hitch.

At Carmelite, from the moment of arrival your co-ordinator will welcome you and your fellow delegates, be on hand throughout the day, and finally liaise with you to discuss your experience at Carmelite.

Guaranteeing a successful event -
*really is in the planning.
